Local Retailers To Hold Prices Where Possible

O. P. A. Official Hits At Packers Subsidy Loss Price Plea

Only in isolated instances has the removal of price control affected business in Truckee. A number of previously scarce items in the food line have jumped into new high levels, but for the most part Truckee merchants are cooperating in a "hold the line" policy.

Merchants interviewed said that they would retain present price levels as long as possible, increasing only when costs from the wholesaler force them to raise.

Rents have never been under OPA control in this area and the removal of rent maximums will not effect this region.

It is expected that prices will rise to meet increasing costs but it is sincerely hoped by the average businessman that prices will soon be standardized and that dreaded inflation, already far along the road, can be headed off.

Meat price increases, announced by the Western States Meat Packers Association, of 20 to 30 per cent considerably exceed the amount of government subsidies withdrawn on June 30, according to OPA.

Published statements attributed to officials of the Association declared that the price increases were ordered to "absorb the loss of subsidies which the taxpayers have been paying."

The meat packers' announcement stated that the average increase in meat prices would be 20 per cent, ranging in some cases up to 30 per cent on choice steaks and roasts.

Ben C. Duniway, OPA regional administrator, pointed out that the subsidy on beef has been only 15 per cent and that on pork only 11 per cent while there has been no subsidy whatsoever on lamb.

"We feel that the taxpayers are entitled to know that there is a considerable differential between the subsidies and the increases announced by the association," Duniway said.

Dolley Leaves Mail Route After 13 Years Service

N. F. Dolley, who for the past 13 years has acted as mail carrier for the Truckee post office, has resigned his job effective July 1 and the duties have been taken over by Garing T. McGee. It is the duty of the carrier to take the mail between trains and the post office. Dolley said other duties demand so much of his time he could no longer do justice to the mail contract.

Legion Sponsors Dance Saturday In Veterans' Hall

Meeting Set to Talk Over Centennial Observance Tuesday Night

The Veterans' Memorial Hall in Truckee will be appropriately decorated for the Independence Day Dance scheduled for Saturday night, July 6 The affair is being sponsored by Truckee Post No. 439, American Legion, and is under the direction of John Saibini's dance committee. Music from 9 PM until 2 AM is being furnished by Lee Arthur and his orchestra and refreshments will available at the hall.

"We had planned it as a 4th of July observance," said Commander Daryl Gaiennie, "but with celebrations being held in Nevada City, Colfax and Reno we did not think it would be fair to offer a counter-attraction here. We are trying to cooperate with other veterans' organizations in their civic programs and expect their cooperation in return."

A special meeting of the local post has been called for next Tuesday night at 8 PM to discuss plans for the Legion-sponsored Donner Centennial observance and whiskerino plans in September. Commander Gaiennie has asked for as heavy an attendance as possible to thoroughly discuss this important topic.

ESTATE OF TRUCKEE MAN SOUGHT BY KIN AFTER THREE YEARS

Joe Del Acqua has filed action in superior court asking that the estate of Louis Robustellini of Truckee be distributed to him, a second cousin, instead of to two sisters who reside in Italy and one residing in Egypt.

The estate is valued at more than $35,000 and has already been distributed to the sisters by Ted Kohler, public administrator. Robustellini died intestate three years ago.

Del Acqua claims that the estate cannot be distributed to the sisters since they are citizens of an enemy nation.

DONNER HOTEL IS SCENE OF ROBBERY ON SUNDAY NIGHT

The second burglary in Truckee in the past week occurred Sunday night when the Donner Hotel was entered and merchandise and cash taken, it was reported by Constable N. F. Dolley.

The thieves entered the building by forcing a rear door. They took a quantity of cigarettes and cigars and looted the cash register.

Varsel Skillern, 28, and George Miller, 23, Negros, were held to answer to the superior court following their preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace C. E. Smith here Tuesday. They were charged with burglarizing Fontana's Laundry last Wednesday when more than $1,000 worth of customers' clothing was taken but later recovered.

Dolley reiterated his intention of continuing his drive to rid Truckee of undesirable transients who are believed responsible for much of the current minor crime wave.

Well Known S. F. Chef Egaged at Beacon Hill

Elmo Moriano, manager of Beacon Hill Lodge on Donner Summit, announces that he has secured the services of Fred Guisti, widely known San Francisco chef, who will preside in the kitchen of the popular resort. Statistics usually leave us more or less unimpressed but the other day we read where 56 per cent of major crimes in the United States today are committed by juveniles and that caused more than passing interest, providing much food for thought. Many of these crimes, it was pointed out, are planned and carried out by children ranging in ages from eight to 16 years and are of the most vicious nature, including torture, rape, murder and arson. We do not believe that the nature of children is changing to that extent and are convinced that the faults lies elsewhere; maybe with the parent, maybe with our educational system or with our disregard of spiritual guidance. Regardless of where the fault lies, it must be corrected. More personalized attention must be given the boys and girls of the country, more authority should be placed in the hands of the teachers to punish offenders and above all parents should be held jointly responsible for every crime committed by their offspring until the latter reach an age where they are individually responsible.

The current drive by local officers to rid Truckee of undesirable characters is one which should have the unanimous support of every local resident. There is not room in Truckee for these people to be absorbed as they are in larger cities. Our summer vacation guests who visit Truckee are not favorably impressed by a drunken brawl or by being accosted on the street by a bum seeking two bits to indulge his thirst. This however, is not the principal objection. There is the matter of increasing robberies and other crimes which are blamed to these transient undesirables. We will admit that they are probably not responsible for all the outrages which occur here but at least the officers can minimize the trouble by ridding the town of those who do not belong here.

Whether we like it or not, the OPA is as dead as the dodo bird and price control, at least for the time being. Competition is expected to adjust prices but how this is to be done as long as the government controls production and distribution is a worry-factor. Scarce commodities are still scarce and if we expect commercial interests to be Santa Clauses and hold the prices down when they have such an excellent opportunity to reap a golden harvest at the expense of the working public, we are anticipating a lot. Some say it can and will be done, but if it is we will be agreeably surprised. So-called vested interests in this country didn't wax rich by favoring the purchasing public during the reign of the OPA and we can hardly expect them to change their attitude under a voluntary plan.

POST OFFICE HERE IS SECOND CLASS WITH BIG RECEIPTS

Truckee's post office Monday entered the second class division as a result of the increase in business during the past year, according to Postmaster E. C. Bavier. The class is based on the stamp sales and box rental which must exceed $10,000 annually to become second class.

While the change will not materially effect the general public, it does give the office a better rating with the post office department and paves the way for future improvements including civil service privileges for employees, increased facilities and possibly even a government building.

Famed Jumper Named For Local Newspaper

Sierra Sun, well known jumper in California horse circles, was named for the Sierra Sun, local newspaper, according to Mrs. Cecil Edmunds, mother of Mrs. John Fitzgerald of Woodland, original owner and trainer of the animal.

When the horse was a colt, the former Miss Edmunds put it through its routine in this district and one winter the family had to carry feed to the ski hill across Truckee River when a sudden and heavy snow made it impossible to send the animal to the valley.

Sierra Sun has competed successfully in horse shows throughout the state and recently won favorable publicity in newspapers and magazines because of its jumping ability.

Man's Arm Discovered At Roadside by White

Officers are puzzled over a gruesome discovery made one mile east of Baxters Tuesday when a man's arm, ripped off the body at the shoulder, was found on the highway by Al White, employed by the division of highways.

State Patrolmen K. C. Kolb and Jack Coe were called to investigate. Kolb reported the arm evidently had been dragged to the highway by a dog or a wild animal as it was badly decomposed but intact.

Coroner West of Colfax was called and took charge and is aiding in the investigation. Hair on the member indicated the arm was that of a white man. A man was mangled by a train near Towle some time ago and it is possible that the arm was missing at that time, officers said.

Zwarg Residence Damaged When Driver Loses Control of Car

One man was in jail charged with auto theft and several others were injured and a local house damaged during this week as the result of a series of motor vehicle accidents in this district.

Elmer C. Minckler, 29, New York, who had been employed at Tahoe Tavern, was arrested after a car registered to E. W. Arnold, a guest at the Tavern, had been stolen and wrecked near Deer Park between Truckee and Tahoe City Tuesday morning about 12:30.

The car driven by Minckler collided with one driven by Ruth Sunshine Shackelford, 30, Tahoe City, who was accompanied by Evelyn June Hillegas, 41, Tahoe. Both women were injured and Minckler suffered a deep gash over one eye, according to Patrolmen H. B. Fowler and M. A. Peterson, who arrested Minckler.

Taken before Justice of the Peace Evelyn Bliss at Tahoe, Minckler's bail was fixed at $2500.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Zwarg on West Main Street suffered considerable damage Sunday night when a car driven by Earl M. One Buck Limit Is Extended By State Game Body

Bradshaw At Important Fish and Game Meet In Bay City

The Associated Sportsmen of California last week announced the seasons and bag limits set by the State Fish and Game Commission at its regulatory powers session in San Francisco last week end. The Truckee Outdoor Sportsmen were represented by President A. G. Bradshaw who reported the meeting.

Considerable changes were made from the original recommendations of the commission released after the initial meeting at Los Angeles.

Several compromises between State Division of Fish and Game and the various sportsmen's groups, including the Associated Sportsmen, had been decided upon.

However, when objections from affiliated clubs of the association were offered, the association was forced to return to its original recommendations. The commission, heeding the sportsmen's desires, thereupon reversed itself in several cases, chief of which was the switch in quail season dates.

Chief objection was the lateness of the season (recommended for Dec. 6 to Jan. 15). The association then returned to its original recommendations, made at Los Angeles, Nov. 15 to Dec. 31. The commission at the recomendation of the division of fish and game, decided to shorten the season to one month, Nov. 15 to Dec. 15. It was stated this must be done to try and increase the stock by having a shorter season.

Other changes included: Making shotgun regulations for upland game birds conform with federal regulations on migratory waterfowl—mainly, all shotguns must be plugged to carry not more than three shells, including the one in the barrel; Barring .22 rim fire rifles and use of spitzer type bullets for large game hunting; Setting two deer seasons and elminating the numerous opening dates of past years. One season (coastal) opening Aug. 7 and closing Sept. 15, the other (interior) opening Sept. 23 and closing Oct. 21.

Seasons and bag limits follow:

Deer season: Aug. 7 to Sept. 15 (Coast Range) Districts 2, 2¼, 2½, 2¾, 3, 3½, 4⅛ and 101. Balance of State opens Sept. 23, closes Oct. 21. Bag limits: Two bucks per season in Coastal range districts and in the territory west of Highway 99 at point starting at Cottonwood and extending north along Highway 99 to Weed, then along Highway 97 to Oregon border.

Rest of district, including District 23, all in the Sept. 23 to Oct. 21 season, one buck per season.

Pheasant season: Dec. 6 to Dec. 15 inclusive. Bag limits: two male birds per day, two in possession, 10 per season.

Quail season: Nov. 15 to Dec. 15 inclusive. Bag limits: eight per day, eight in possession, 16 per week.

Rabbit season: Sept. 1 to Dec. 31 in Districts 4, 4⅛, 4¾, 19 and 22. Rest of state Nov. 15 to Dec. 15. Bag limits: Cottontail, 8 per day, 8 in possession, 16 per week. Jack rabbit, same in Sept. 1 to Dec. 31 season; unprotected in rest of state, open all year.

Tree squirrrel season: Nov. 15 to Dec. 15 inclusive in District 1 only. Bag limits: two per day, two in possession, 12 per season.

Bear season: Oct. 15 to Dec. 31 inclusive. Bag limit: two per season.

Shooting hours: one half hour before sunrise until one half hour after sunset for all except pheasant, quail, rabbit and tree squirrels from Dec. 6 to Dec. 15 inclusive. Shooting hours at that time are 10 AM until one half hour after sunset.

Truckee Resort Opens New Swimming Pool

Guests at Truckee Resort this week are thoroughly enjoying the privileges of the new concrete swimming pool which was constructed by the owner, I. O. Gifford and the managers, Mr. and Mrs. George McAbee.

The pool is 50 feet long and 35 feet wide and is filled with running water which is to be preheated. The pool is surrounded by a concrete walk with beach sand around the border. Two shower rooms have been erected to provide all necessary facilities.

The bottom of the pool has been tapered from a shallow portion in one end for the youngsters to over six feet in the deeper portion. The interior is painted light green to give a nice appearance.

This is only one of the many improvements planned for the resort, McAbee said.

TAHOE REALTOR IS UPHELD BY JUDGE IN ZONING ACTION

AUBURN— Joseph C. Robertson has the legal right to maintain a real estate brokerage office in his residence at a Carnelian Bay subdivision on Lake Tahoe. This decision was handed down by Superior Judge A. L. Pierovich of Amador County brought against Robertson by several other residents of the area who claimed he had violated a county ordinance by establishing what was termed a "commercial enterprise" that annoyed other residents and devaluated their property.

The original suit was filed May 23, 1945.

In an argument submitted by his attorney, Floyd Bowers of Roseville Robertson held that real estate transactions in his home, which he used as a year-round dwelling, constituted practice of a profession rather than commercial enterprise.

Bowers stated that the county ordinance allowed the establishment of "professional offices" on it.

No Privacy, Loafers Are Blamed for Town Failure

The special pet of Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt in New Deal days, the government's multi-million dollar social resettlement experiment in the hills of Preston County, West Virginia, has come to an end.

A Baltimore manufacturer has bought from the Federal Public Housing Authority the three small industrial plants and the roomy fieldstone and clapboard inn. He will give work to the 200 men and women who remain in the Arthurdale, near Morgantown.

The government built 165 attractive houses of fieldstone and clapboard construction and Arthurdale opened with an air of social salvation. Cooperatives subsidized by the government boomed.

Mrs. Roosevelt often appeared there to call reels at square dances, and frequently was hostess to various Washington "social experts." Residents complained there were "too many people looking at us."

Bickering soon began; sweetness and light faded, and groups of residents complained that their cooperative efforts were "supporting a bunch of loafers." The cooperative enterprises died and the socialized community soon was to follow suit.

Manhattan Main Street

By CARL HELM

"NEW YORK is all right for a visit, but I wouldn't live there if you gave me the place!" So the saying.

Lots of people who live here seldom visit the place—the New York of the picture postcards and chatter columns. Just knowing that the Gay White Way, theatres and nightclubs are there if they want them seems to suffice, whether they ever set foot in them or not.

The humble thousands who service the city for its visitors, set the stage, shift the scenes, tend and polish the glitter and glamor — live out their lives quietly as any citizen of Kokomo, Indiana.

The haughty, bespangled doormen of the Stork Club and the Waldorf, the stiffly starched servitors of the Biltmore and Ritz, shed their swank with their uniforms after work, and subway home to wives and kids in the suburbs.

Wisecracking taxi drivers garage their hacks at the end of their tours and become staid, home-loving family men who sing hymns in church; many a hot-spot strip-teaser hurries home after her act to spend the rest of the night darning hubby's socks and shirts.

New York for New Yorkers can be as quiet and conventional as Biloxi or Butte. A dazzling show for visitors, it's a place where one lives ... often wondering why.

20 Years Ago: First Movie Linking Sound With Action

The Mary Astor-John Barrymore "maiden-in-distress-hero-at-hand" scene is from the motion picture, "Don Juan," which introduced twenty years ago a new triumph of electrical engineering—the synchronization of sound with action on the screen—and a new age in entertainment and education.

The first commercial feature-length motion picture with a fully synchronized and recorded musical score, "Don Juan" made its debut at the old Warner Brothers theater in New York Aug. 6, 1926, in connection with a showing of the first talking film—a program of shorts of operatic and concert soloists.

Six months later the first sound newsreel appeared. "The Jazz Singer," a semi-talkie featuring Al Jolson, was exhibited in October, 1927, and removed any doubts among leaders of the film and electrical manufacturing industries as to the future of sound pictures. The first 100 per cent talking motion picture, "Lights of New York," followed in July, 1928.

Famous Contributors

The screen acquired its voice through the contributions, dating as far back as 1875, of many men, including such geniuses as Bell, who invented the telephone; Edison, who invented the motion picture, the phonograph and other sound recording equipment, who as early as 1889 linked small motion pictures with a phonograph to demonstrate experimental sound pictures; De Forest, who invented a three-element electronic tube for the amplification of recorded sound. The synchronous electric motor, a triumph of electrical engineering in itself, and specially-designed electric generators and cable were among other factors leading to perfection of the system.

'A Total of 191 Kisses'

"Don Juan" established several precedents, in addition to its sound "first." It drew, for instance, a record opening price of $10, plus $1 tax, and a record top for the run of $3.30. Animated color signs, in which action in painted figures was obtained by the alternate flashing of colored electric lights, made their debuts on Broadway and in the theater lobby to advertise the picture—particularly the late John Barrymore, who as "the heroic Don Juan of your dreams bestows a total of 191 kisses during many amorous expeditions." A refrigeration plant, placed in operation for the first time, kept the theater at 72 degrees.

No Federal Auto Stamp Is Required This Year

Automobile owners do not have to buy a Federal Stamp this year, according to Collector of Internal Revenue James G. Smyth of the First California District.

The use tax on motor vehicles and boats, as well as the taxes on capital stock and declared value excess profits, was repealed by the Revenue Act of 1945. Smyth pointed out that the repeal is effective for the period after June 30, 1946.

The Zuni Indian Village south of Gallup, New Mexico, is the remnant of the historic "Seven Cities of Cibola."

MY PLACE in the SUN

by DOUG BARRETT

My Place .... leoe.–|,eHv.r,ni ||wil ..

We hear with what appears to be ever-increasing frequency of the frivolity and irresponsibility of the "younger generation". We are often reminded of their shortcomings by isolated instances of delinquency. Too often we are prone to overlook the many fine young men and women in our community when we, in the fashion of a carpet, cluck our tongues at "the wild youngsters". Let's think, for a change, of kids like Kenny Snider who, before his graduation from high school, worked in the evenings and since is working at Loynd's Truckee Drug....Billy Campbell, Truckee's champion skier, who is making his way as a mechanic at Thornton's Garage....one of Rotary Oil's most dependable workers is Earl Smith the younger....while our leading Boy Scout, Harvey Hocker, is working for City Transfer....and his brother, LaVerne, has a two-seat shoe shine stand....while Dennis Gregory operates another just up the block....Gene Gini is developing into one of the most competent grocery clerks in town at Truckee Merc. All these and many more here in Truckee alone should make any of us stop and qualify our condemnation of today's "flaming" youth. They're good young people with the makings of good citizens in them. Let's give credit where credit is due as quickly as we knock whether the knock is due or not.

The American Legion's dance committee has gone to a lot of trouble to decorate their hall for the dance on Saturday night and obtain a good orchestra for your dancing pleasure. Individually, they gain nothing by the many hours of hard work they have put in. They wll gain much as a group if appreciation, in the form of a record attendance, is shown by those who have so often requested the Legion to repeat its successful Washington's Birthday dance. Come on up and join the crowd. There'll be fun to be had that you'll be sorry you missed—if you do, which I hope you don't.

STREET SEENS: Emile du Choudens with a fresh haircut and mustache trim....Darby O'Donoughue thinking his own deep thoughts as his mother pushes him down the street....Jim Snell, shirt rolled up and a neat straw hat on, just visiting from Grass Valley....Constable Tom Dolley and his deputies, John Collier, Roy Waters, Dick Ackerson and Erv Waters, really looked like the law and no fooling in the vagrant cleanup last week....Mrs. Al Graber of Wimpy's at Brockway in Truckee on business....Carl Smith talking over a plumbing problem at his Donner Lake home with Harold Hodson....Tillie Smith says Carl is her cousin "45 times removed" but she wouldn't say from where....th Rasco crew held open house 'til 10 PM Tuesdeve to show off their new zuper-Zenith radio of which they were justly proud....Charlie Bandur is Truckee's uncrowned cribbage champ....Art Rafdal and Geno Giovannoni in conference....Rome Stark handing out cigars on the advent of his daughter this week ....and they were good ones, too.

Tavern Orchestra May Go On NBC Program

TAHOE TAVERN— Ever since the Tavern opened, the Sierra Room has afforded good food and a good time to hundreds of guests and their friends. It is a large room with high ceilings and beautifully panelled in California woods. It faces Lake Tahoe and has a most beautiful view. The Sierra Room is the dining room at the Tavern where large banquets are held. It is also the main place to dance for Tavern guests, their friends and residents of the region.

During dinner and the evening, Albie Berg and his 11-piece orchestra dispense dance music with dinner dancing from 7 to 9 PM and then dancing to 11:30. The Sierra Room is open to the public with no cover or minimum charge. George LeSeur of the Arizona Biltmore is maitre d'hotel.

Plans are now under way whereby a circuit is being sought to NBC studios in Reno over which Berg's orchestra will be heard over the radio. Jim Preshaw, who does all the arranging for the group and formerly with Henry Busse and Laurence Welk, will accompany the boys on the piano through their tuneful half hour of Sierra Time.

JAMES SNELL GETS PRAISE FOR WORK IN LABOR DISPUTE

NEVADA CITY— The Mine Workers' Protective League, bargaining agent for the gold miners of western Nevada County, this week passed a resolution of commendation for the members of a committee which successfully negotiated contracts for the miners, averting a strike called for June 30. The contract provided for an 18½ cents an hour pay raise.

James Snell, candidate for superior judge and attorney for the MWPL, was cited along with the committee for "tact, diplomacy and judgment" in the discussions and agreement.

JOHANSON REPORTS CONSTABLE'S LIFE IS ANYTHING BUT DULL

TAHOE CITY— Constable Harry Johanson reported the coat, stolen from Sam Landesburg, Tahoe City business man, on Friday, was recovered. Nearly $1,400 in checks was still in the coat undisturbed.

The constable administered first aid to Colleen Morhain on June 27 at Tahoe Lake School after she sprained an ankle while playing.

A cash register stolen from the Tahoe Tavern Casino on June 22 was recovered by the constable just behind the casino. Approximately $15 was missing. The thieves made their escape successfully.

On the 17th Johanson relieved two 16 year old boys of a .45 calibre pistol. No shells were in the gun which the constable confiscated.

On the 27th he was called to investigate an accident at Bittencourt Tract involving cars driven by Lee Garner and James David Gregory. Excessive speed was blamed. No one was injured but both cars were damaged.

The constable last week sent for the Placer County ambulance to take Lester Kohler, transient, from Brockway to the county hospital. He was suffering from blood poisoning. Dr. Carter of Brockway Resort administered first aid.

W. Black, Jr., of Brockway was fined $200 in the court of Justice of the Peace Evelyn Bliss for assault.

Constable Johanson reports an unusual number of transients and hobos in the Tahoe area this summer, with many requesting sleeping accomodations in the unfinished Tahoe City jail. He warns local residents not to leave houses unlocked when departing and not to leave valuables about which could be misappropriated.

Tahoe Letter
From SWANEE

Tahoe City, California.
June 30th, 1946

Dear Tahoeites:—

Sunday again, and not too pleasant. The sun shown brightly earlier today but now it has clouded over and looks like it might even rain before nightfall. Traffic continues to whiz up and down the highway, almost without pause, and thousands of vacationers have weekended at Tahoe.

The hillsides and shoreline are all abloom with buck brush and snowbush and a myriad of other wild flowers, all lending their fragrant scents to the overwhelming, almost sickeningly sweet breezes that sweep our winding shores. The beaches are lined with sun bathers and those brave enough to test the invigorating lake waters. Somehow, however, I don't feel that the peak of the season has come anywhere near fullfilment as yet.

Had the grand surprise this morning of receiving three letters from son Jimmie with the 59th Weather Wing headquarters at Weisbaden, Germany. His eyes are once again in excellent shape and there is no further danger of permanent injury, which is a great relief to his doting mother and family. There are rumors making the rounds in his area that he may eligible for return to the U.S. in about four months, as he will have been in active service for a year on July 14 and will be looking forward with keenest anticipation to his return to Camp Beale and home. He finds Weisbaden a beautiful city, interesting and most entertaining, but he's plenty lonely for the pinescented mountains of his beloved Tahoe. Here's hoping he'll at least be home for Christmas.

Received a very lovely letter from Captain Hans Hansen, now residing at Half Moon Bay. He begs his many friends to excuse him for not having visited them on his recent trip up and promises to return in September to catch up on his social obligations. He's still partial to Santa Cruz, which at this time of year, he says, is all in bloom, with fields of wild flowers everywhere. In fact, Santa Cruz has everything the heart could desire, excepting nylons, butter and lumber. He's getting pretty well settled in his new home, the weather is perfect with cooling sea breezes from the ocean daily. He sends along best wishes to all.

Had a chat today with Miss Ida Pomin, sister of Mrs. Janet Watson and Ernest H. Pomin of Tahoe Park. Ida has resigned her position as assistant postmaster, a post she has held for the past 33 years, almost 25 of which were spent in the old post office on the commons before it burned, and the past nine in the new community building in Tahoe City. Ill health influenced her decision to retire but the rest of the past month has been most beneficial. The duties she left are now being performed by Mrs. Y. Fenton Ball of Bittencourt Tract and Miss Lois Reeves of Tahoe City. Her numerous friends in the Tahoe area extend best wishes for a well deserved and enjoyable rest after her long and faithful public service.

Another familiar face which is being missed about town is that of D. M. Brodhl, for years mail contractor at Tahoe. He has gone to Oakland where he will carry the mail twice daily between Oakland and Concord. His son-in-law, Bob Pomin, on Friday drove the truck down and will visit in the bay region for a few days. Mrs. Brodehl, who has been down visiting with her husband, will accompany Bob home the first of the week.

Mrs. Evelyn Bliss, who has been assisting the Red Cro water program which starts this week at Tahoe City, reports that more than 50 will be eligible for swim classes to be conducted by Andrew Hardin, Hollister hiyh school athletic coach, who is in charge. She advises youngsters visiting only a short time to attend and take lessons as long as they are in the vicinity, but they, of course, cannot receive their credentials like those completing the prescribed course. Hardin had a class of 369 in Auburn prior to coming to Tahoe and is looking forward to having a large group at Tahoe. On July 15th he goes to Kings Beach where children and adults are now registering.

Cal-Neva on Saturday night furnished entertainment deluxe for Tahoeites who patronized that resort. The incomparable Gracie Fields opened the summer season there and was found to be as dynamic and njoyable in the flesh as she is on her radio program. Among Tahoeites who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rost, Mr. and Mrs, Stanley Martin, Mrs. Gil Willliams of Yerington, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Main, Mrs. Norman Mayfield. Mr. and Mrs. Jay Shontz, Dr. Jones of Pittsburg and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Bechdolt, Jr.

Back to visit for th day of Thursday among her many old friends at the lake was Mrs. Hulda Nielsen, who now resides in Auburn. She came up with her neighbor, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilson, who was accompanied by her granddaughter and a neighbor's child. Mrs. Nielsen greatly enjoyed her brief visit here and plans to vacation for a few days later in the season with the Eriksons of Homewood.

Was the guest of Rotarian Ernest H. Pomin, publicity chairman for the recent convention at Tahoe Tavern along with his wife, for the banquet on Thursday night and the luncheon on Friday. Approximately 180 Rotary members were present for the turkey dinner in the Sierra Room and about 260 members and guests were in attendance. We found it one of the most entertaining and enjoyable conventions we ever attended and I met numerous interesting visiting Rotarians from the district. Among them was Paul Reeger, 85, past district governor, who has been a Rotarian for 30 years. He is a manufacturer of perfumes and hails from San Francisco. Also, Harry Whitcomb of Davis, who attended with his wife. He is the famous bee man who recently made the pages of a popular magazine with a story of his hives and production secrets. Tate Williams' pleasing rendition of "I'm Lonesome, I Guess, That's All," brought forth an encore, "Home on the Range." Dr. Vere Loper, president of Berkeley Rotary, gave an address on "Youth Today and Rotary" which was well received and heartily commended. Also met tall and handsome Russ Leslie, special events man for the Tavern this summer, who is certainly planning entertainment deuxe for the guests this sason. Not everyone knows Leslie was a member of the cast of a new picture, "Gentleman Joe Palooka", completed about two weeks ago, in which Elyse Knox, with Joe Kirkwood, Jr., playing the part of Joe Palooka. The latter is now in the east playing golf but is expected at Tahoe within a few weeks. Others in the cast included Leon Errol, H. B. Warner, Guy Kibbee and Lionel Stander. Tommy Harmon, former All American football player, and his wife, Elyse Knox, were recent guests of Leslie's. I hugely enjoyed the convention and the many lovely people I met during my visit, to say nothing of the entertaining program presented with Truckee and Tahoe talent.

I was among the millions hearing the actual dropping of the atom bomb on Bikini and pray with all my heart that man will exert every effort possible to guide its terrific force to the channels of good, turning its immeasurable energies to the betterment of the world, and forgetting, voluntarily, forever, the depths of destruction its might can produce as an instrument of war.

Leave you for another week and trust this finds you all in good health with good luck and good cheer your daily companions As ever,

SWANEE

Retiring Tahoe Justice Earns Officers' Plaudits

by SWANEE

TAHOE CITY— Mrs. Evelyn Bliss, widow of Judge George Bliss who so ably guided the destinies of law and order in the Tahoe region for a period of 12 years before his passing almost nine years ago, will soon be ending her term as justice of the peace of this township. She serves until January 1, 1947, when her successor will take office. Local voters will choose between C. W. Vernon of Tahoe City and Tom Doherty of Kings Beach on November 5 to fill the position.

Mrs. Bliss, who has served as justice of the peace since her husband's death, has earned the highest respect of her neighbors and fellow citizens.

Mrs. Bliss, who really wished to resign after her first term of office but who was persuaded by Tahoeites to run again, came to the decision to retire due to the ever-increasing influx of new residents to the area. The time will soon be at hand when, she feels, the justice of the peace should reside the year 'round at the lake and this she does not wish to feel compelled to do. Heavy snows of winter mean long periods of confinement and difficult tasks to perform—not a pleasant prospect for a woman who lives alone. Although she might have the permission of the district attorney to winter in Auburn where she would remain handy in case of need, she believes she has performed her duty through the war years and is willing to step out and allow another who will be a permanent resident to take over.

Says Constable Harry Johanson of Tahoe City: "I sincerely regret that Mrs. Bliss did not choose to retain her office as justice of the peace, as she has given perfect cooperation and has displayed faultless and fearless judgement in deciding cases I have brought before her. I have only highest praise for her past performance in office during my term as constable. At no time was there any display of laxity or lack of dignity during the hearing of a case, whether held in her home or in a public hall.

Said Game Warden Bill LaMarr "Mrs. Bliss has always given wholehearted cooperation to the fish and game department, rendering judgements as she saw them, fairly and without prejudice. She has always advised defendants of their legal rights before their hearings, in order that they might realize fully their responsibilities before making a plea before her. At no time was lack of dignity or laxity present during hearings in her home."

Says Fred White, in charge of Tahoe Park forest service station this season: "The Forest Service has found Mrs. Bliss most cooperative in hearing cases brought before her by our department. We have only highest praise for her ability in rendering honest and sincere decisions and have found her court sessions dignified and conducted with proper decorum at all times."

The many friends of Mrs. Bliss regret her decision to relinquish the office of justice of the peace which she has filled faithfully and well over the last eight and a half year, but are happy to know that she will continue to remain the same good neighbor and conscientious citizen she has been throughout her 38 years of residence at Lake Tahoe.

HOLIDAY WEEKEND WITH MANY EVENTS SLATED AT TAVERN

TAHOE CITY— Tahoe Tavern is today off to a flying start on its big series of weekend and 4th of July events, according to Russ Leslie, special events director, and Shirley Walker.

The events begon this morning—July 4—at 10:00 with an invitational tennis match on the Tavern courts. At 12:30 "Texas" and his wonder horse, Bear Paws, entertains the crowd near the courts. Beginning at 2 PM will be the outdoor review in three parts.

Leading off will be a water ballet staged by Harry Pierson, followed by nine acts of vaudeville by Tavern employees and concluded by a fashion showe staged by the Tahoe shop of Roos Brothers of San Francisco.

Friday, the tennis semi-finals will be held at 10 AM and on Saturday between 1:30 and 3 PM the finals will be held. At the latter time, an exhibition match by Howard Kinsey, Gene Smith, Larry Hall and Fran Smart. All are tennis players of national note, the latter being Tavern professional.

Expected guests at the Tavern on the holiday weekend are cinema stars Linda Darnell and Nancy Guild, the latter's last picture being "Somewhere in the Night" with John Hodiak.

The plan to hold a pyrotechnic display this evening had to be cancelled because no fire works could be purchased for the event.

The Third "R"

By GEORGE S. BENSON
President of Harding College
Searcy, Arkansas

Looking Ahead

ONE OF the things about modern education that dismays me is the fact that students don't pursue their three R's long enough. They are at liberty too early to ignore one of them — the last one. Arithmetic is dry at first and a lot of youngsters drop mathematics. High school freshmen have learned to say "It's only a waste of time to study things you don't like and will never use."

"What you don't know doesn't hurt you," is rubbish. Certainly what you don't know does you no good. Truly an actor may draw a fabulous salary for years and die in debt. Tales are told of artists and musicians who can't balance their check stubs, but their ignorance did not improve their art. It would be like saying liquor made Poe a poet, or that harems make great kings.

National Honesty A POLL might show that millions of Americans don't know what it means to balance the budget. It wouldn't be surprising. Most of us live so easily and so well that we don't even have a personal budget. But our national budget needs to be balanced. People who try to laugh that off don't know what it means or, worse yet, would welcome national bankruptcy as a stepping stone to revolution.

Balancing a budget, whether it is a family budget or a national budget, means keeping a safe relation between income and outgo. The inevitable result of spending more than we get is debt, bankruptcy and loss of credit. That means the loss of our good name and the respect of our neighbors. When we stop paying our debts and start breaking our promises, that's loss of credit.

Good Name UNCLE SAM is on his way to that social level. He has not reached it yet, but when he does it will be too late to save him. Now is the time to balance the national budget. I was never more proud of my home state as when the entire Arkansas delegation in Congress, senators and representatives, went on record last March as favoring a balanced national budget. That's practical statesmanship.

"A balanced federal budget can be accomplished in the next fiscal year if Congress will meet its full responsibility and adopt a program of economy. By considering each appropriation bill in the light of its effect on total necessary expenditures, we can hold the cost of government within the annual revenues collected. . . . The time to begin is now." So said the statement.

Habitually spending money we do not have can't help but lead this nation to collapse, and nothing worse could happen to the world's economic welfare. Think of the war functions now idling along; men whose energies might be transferred to the credit column. In every locality there is uncounted waste that should be and can be transformed into a bit of thrift.

TAHOE BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Green, former owners of Tahoe Tavern, have purchased the former Wasserman home in Sacramento where they make their winter residence, when not engaged in sightseeing about America.

The lake level on Monday morning stood at 6228.79 with 219 CSF of water leaving the gates in town. The warmest day of the past week was on Sunday, June 30th, when the thermometer went to 75 and coolest was on the 24th with 29 registered.

Bud Jones on Sunday brought in 40 head of horses to his ranch in Squaw Valley. Among them were Constable Johanson's two mounts, Viking and Sven, who will enjoy a summer of leisure, due to the officer's press of duties this season.

Mrs. John B. Metcalf of San Francisco isi occupying her home on the lakeshore near Bishop Porter's home for the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. Mehrmann of Oakland have arrived for the summer season and have opened their home in the Timberland Tract.

Edward O'Laughlin of Pasadena, father of Mrs. Bernie Bechdolt of Tahoe City, is visiting at the home of his daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. William Boorman of Tahoe City on Sunday began the task of moving their household belongings to their lot in the new Fairway Tract, above Tahoe Tavern golf links, where their new home is being erected. Part of the framework is already up and the flooring is down and they hope to have it ready for occupancy before the summer is over.

Mrs. Pauline Swedenborg of Tahoe Park, whose husband is employed in a Detroit iron works, quietly observed their wedding anniversary on Thursday last by dining with her nephew, William Olson, at Cal-Neva. She is employed at Tahoe Park cottages for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Pomin of Tahoe Park hosted a chicken dinner on Sunday, their guests including Mrs. Robert Pomin and children, Duane and Randall and baby Darnall Ernestine, Miss Ida Pomin, Mrs. Pauline Swedenborg and Mrs. Laura Harris and daughter Willa of Texas.

Up for the Rotary convention last week was Francis Dubois of Woodland who owns a summer home at Homewood.

Dick Hinkle, Sea Marine, who has been furloughing at his Tahoe City home, has ascertained that he can secure plane passage back to Virginia so he is remaining to the last minute here enjoying his vacation. He leaves on the 4th via TWA from San Francisco to report back to duty at Norfolk. If all goes as planned, he should be out of the reserves sometime in September, after which he will continue his education in college.

Pittsburgh Steel Man, Bride Honeymoon at Tahoe Tavern in Week

TAHOE TAVERN— Mrs. Marie Nelson of Los Angeles and Joseph Mannarino of Pittsburgh, Pa., were married in Reno on June 25th by Judge Harry Dunseath. Mannarino is the owner of the Ken-Iron Steel Company. The wedding party consisted of Mrs. Minka Price and Rosetta Waterman, both of Los Angeles, and Ray Gilliland of Prospect, Ore. After the wedding, they motored to Tahoe Tavern on Lake Tahoe where they remained for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Mannarino plan to visit friends in San Francisco for a few days and then proceed to their home in Los Angeles. They will divide their time between their home there and Pittsburgh.

Mannarino is nationally known as "Jo Jo" and is the famous character by that name in Damon Runyon's story "Gentlemen, the King." He and Runyon are close friends and the story grew out of a motor trip together when Mannarino was telling Runyon of his experiences.

We are diligently concentrating..... on providing service to waiting applicants as fast as it is humanly possible to do so

Every effort is being made to improve the quality and efficiency of our service

Directing our efforts as we have to render service as rapidly as possible to all who want it and to make our service even better than it has ever been before, the 2,886,000 telephones in service as of May 31, 1946, include an increase of 254,000 since V-J Day, of which 183,000 were added in the first five months of this year—an unequaled increase in any similar time period in the history of our company.

The telephone increase since V-J Day exceeds by 67,000, or 36 per cent, the 187,000 increase in the year 1943—the largest yearly telephone increase ever recorded by our company. The telephone increase for the first five months of 1946 exceeds by 69,000, or 60 per cent, the 114,000 increase for the entire year 1945.

New applications for service—totaling 340,000 for the first five months of this year—increased 107 per cent over the corresponding period of a year ago. Of the 286,000 prospective subscribers at the first of the year whose applications had been necessarily deferred due to shortage of facilities, we are glad to report that 183,000, or 64 per cent, have been cared for. Due, however, to the time necessarily involved in the installation of complicated switchboards—in many instances new buildings are required to house them—together with the large number of new applications and the continued materials shortages and disturbed conditions throughout the country affecting manufacturers' production, 229,000 applicants are still waiting for service.

We are diligently concentrating, notwithstanding the difficulties in obtaining adequate apparatus and materials, on providing service to waiting applicants as fast as it is humanly possible to do so. Likewise every effort is being made to improve the quality and efficiency of our service.

Construction of additional toll and long distance circuits has gone forward with rapidity and continued improvement is being made in the service even though the volume continues at record high levels—the calls being 20 per cent greater than in the corresponding five-month period of a year ago.

Our company has recently made substantial further postwar increased wage adjustments, aggregating $6,000,000 on an annual basis, as a result of collective bargaining negotiations with the unions. These added wage increases are over and above the postwar adjustment wage increases made in December of last year which aggregated more than $18,000,000 on an annual basis. Thus, this recent wage increase, embodied in a contract to run until March 1, 1947, brings the postwar adjustment wage increases, arising out of collective bargaining, to more than $24,000,000 annually—the increase in our postwar wage rates being 19 per cent. The recent collective bargaining negotiations between our management and the unions extended over a period from April 24 to May 18, 1946, and at no time throughout the negotiations did the unions or the company fail to realize that the public interest came first . . . Net Income has been adversely affected by increased costs of operation, particularly the large added wage expenditures.

Don't Destroy Ration Books Public Warned

Do not destroy or throw away your ration books, OPA warned all citizens today. Sugar rationing is still in effect. It is administered under the Second War Powers Act which was renewed a few days ago. Spare stamp 49 is requird to obtain five pounds of sugar for household use. Spare stamps 9 and 10 are good through October 31 for five pounds of canning sugar each.

A. B. Hawley, chief of the sugar rationing division, stated that no individual can obtain more than ten pounds of sugar for home canning. He said all applications for additional amounts would be refused.

Hawley explained that OPA price control boards have no authority in rationing matters. They simply distribute applications for new rationing books to returned service men, babies and others who never had rationing books or who have surrendered them to OPA for any reason. Applications for replacement of lost or stolen books and applications for members of the armed forces on leave or furlough are also distributed by the boards.
